—A fire at St. Johns, N. B., on Monday morning, gutted two hotels and several stores. Several boarders had narrow escapes.

—Memorial day was observed in Augusta, Ga., by a general suspension of business, strewing of graves with flowers and a military parade.

—The Odd Fellows of a number of cities yesterday celebrated the fifty-fifth anniversary of the introduction of the Order into the United States.

—Rev. John N. McHead, pastor of the First Reformed Presbyterian church of New York city during the past forty-eight years, died on Monday, aged sixty-nine.

—The Kansas City, St. Joseph & Omaha Railroad has commenced to run day and sleeping cars direct from Omaha across the Mississippi river bridge to St. Louis.

—The difficulty between the mill operatives and mill owners at St. Johns, N. B., continues. The mill owners declare that they will shut every mill rather than submit to the tyranny of Trades Unions.

—The Alabama river is two feet above the high water mark of July, 1872, and rising slowly. The water lacks but two inches of being sixty feet above the low water mark. The low lands south of Selma are submerged, and great damage has been done to plantations and crops.

—The case of George Washington Bowen vs. Nelson Chase, for the Jumel estate, was up again on Monday before Judge Blatchford, in New York, on an application by Charles O'Conor for an injunction to restrain Bowen from further prosecuting the claim against the estate.

—The House Committee on Appropriations has agreed to report and recommend the immediate passage of a bill appropriating $90,000 to enable the Secretary of War to carry out the provisions of Mr. Morris' bill for the purchase of supplies of food to be issued to persons suffering from the inundation on the lower Mississippi.

—The irrepressible Barnum has once more recovered, phœnix-like, from his ashes, and opened in New York, last night, his Roman Hippodrome, the largest place of amusement in the world. The building covers the entire site of the old Harlem & New Haven Railroad depot, and seats 10,000 people.

—The Secretary of War has directed the issue of 20,000 army rations daily for twenty-five days, and also a proper supply of army clothing for the destitute people in the overflowed region about the Mississippi, the distribution to be made by committees agreed upon by the authorities in New Orleans. The cost to the Government will be ninety thousand dollars, and the Secretary has asked Congress to appropriate that amount to meet the expenses.

—At a meeting of the Columbus Police Commissioners last night, a lengthy discussion was had as to what should be done relative to the crusaders. A motion requesting the Mayor to issue a proclamation forbidding the collection of people on sidewalks was voted down, and a motion adopted requesting the chairman of the board to call on the Executive Committee of the crusaders and request them to desist from further street work, and inform them that in the event of their refusal a proclamation enforcing the sidewalk ordinance will be issued.

—J. Keen was killed in Kentucky, above Cairo, on Monday morning, by a shot from a revolver in the hands of J. Howes. Both are young men of about eighteen, and have lived as neighbors for some years near the scene of the tragedy. The origin of the difficulty was that Keen, on last Thursday, was drifting down the river with the current in a skiff, he lying down, and Howes, thinking the skiff adrift without an occupant, attempted to capture it, when Keen rose up and laughed at him. Howes vowed vengeance, and their meeting resulted in the tragedy above recorded. Howes is under arrest.

—The Detroit Board of Trade on Monday held a meeting on the subject of the President's veto of the inflation bill. A report was unanimously adopted affirming the belief that "the veto message has saved the national credit, purified and toned up the public conscience, rebuked the unscrupulous schemes of political adventurers and demagogues, and nipped in the bud financial projects which, if carried into effect, would have brought an era of insecure speculation, followed by general bankruptcy and ruin, and the message has splendidly justified the confidence of the nation in the great leader who led the arms of the United States to victory."

—Inquiries among the builders and carpenters of New York indicate that there will be a general stoppage of all building operations on May 1st until the question of eight or ten hours daily work is settled. The men, it is said, will resist the movement of the employers for ten hours, and strong opposition is expected, especially on the part of the masons, who only work eight hours now. They rely on the large amount of job work which has to be done at once, and on the necessity that contractors will have to begin the erection of buildings they have contracted to finish within a certain time. As both sides are equally determined to hold out, the contest will be a long one, and, it is feared, will bring much suffering to many families.

Clark was arrested in New York on Monday for attempting to purchase $8,450 gold from the Hoar Brothers with a forged check of Greenbaum Brothers, whose clerk Clark claims to be. The Liquor Traffic in Ohio.

CINCINNATI, April 27.—The Constitutional Convention to-day, after several days' debate, adopted a proposition to submit to a separate vote of the people for adoption in the Constitution a clause that license to traffic in intoxicating liquors may be granted, but this section shall not be so construed as to prevent the Legislature from making laws to restrain and regulate the sale and compensate for injuries arising therefrom. The alternative clause is "no license," and its success before the people would carry a prohibitory fine of traffic, and leave the Legislature to make laws to restrain the sale and require compensation for injuries resulting from the sale.

FORTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

Eulogies on Charles Sumner

Glowing Tributes to the Deceased Senator,

WASHINGTON, April 27, 1874.

SENATE.

Eulogies on the Late Senator Sumner.

This being the day fixed for eulogies upon the late Senator Sumner, the galleries of the Senate chamber were densely crowded long before the hour of meeting. A bust of the late Senator, recently finished by Preston Powers, was placed in a conspicuous position and appropriately draped. Vice President Wilson was present, but did not occupy the chair. Prayer having been offered and the journal read, Mr. BOUTWELL said, in accordance with a notice previously given, he now submitted to the Senate the following resolutions, and asked their consideration.

Resolved, By the Senate, that as an additional mark of respect to the memory of Charles Sumner, long a Senator of Massachusetts, business be now suspended, that the friends and associates of the deceased may pay a fitting tribute to his public and private virtues.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to present these resolutions to the House of Representatives.

The resolutions were agreed to, and Mr. Boutwell then began his speech. He spoke of the pure purpose of Mr. Sumner in private and public affairs, and said although at times in advance of the people of his State in his hostility to slavery and the reconstruction of the Government upon a basis of freedom, he never misrepresented Massachusetts in the cause of liberty. He was an apostle, martyr, and finally a conqueror. His life, as he often said, was a life of controversy. He was devoted to liberty —not to English liberty or to American liberty, but to liberty. He accepted in their fullest sense the words of Kossuth: 'Liberty is liberty as God is God.'' Mr. Sumner was a follower of ideas, and inclined to trust general declarations and embody them in the Constitution and laws. He was impatient of delay, and hence accepted reluctantly those amendments to the Constitution which to others seemed sufficient for the protection of personal and public rights. Therefore, in the business of the Government, and for the time in which he lived, Mr. Sumner was not always a practical statesman, but his name will always stand among the great leaders in the contest for the overthrow of slavery, and his labors, fidelity and sufferings in the cause will justly claim consideration in other lands and from future times. His life, character and public services, especially in favor of human liberty and universal peace, will ever be held in grateful remembrance by his countrymen and the knowledge thereof transmitted to posterity as an example for future generations.

Senator THURMAN alluded in feeling terms to the friendship which had existed between the deceased Senator and himself, and said he desired to speak not of the politician or statesman, but of the man. One of the striking peculiarities of Mr. Sumner's mind was breadth rather than accuracy, a devotion to a great idea without due regard to its unavoidable limitations. Intellect, refinement and taste marked his conversation, and the amiability, high breeding and politeness of his character will ever command our respect and admiration. I speak over his grave my belief that he was great in intellect, profound in learning, sincere in his convictions, true in his friendship, urbane and amiable in his intercourse, and wholly unassailable by corruption. All this I can truly say. More than this he would not, if living, wish me to say. He would not ask me to surrender my well-matured opinions or to applaud his views or his course when opposed to the deliberate judgment of my own mind.

Mr. SPENCER spoke of the many good traits in the personal character of Mr. Sumner, his ability as a statesman and his efforts against the evils of human slavery.

Mr. MORRILL (Vermont) referred to the personal loss, and to the greater loss of the Senate itself, by the death of Mr. Summer. He alluded to his brilliant efforts in the Senate, and said that by a life of unstinted and unselfish labor in the cause of humanity he secured the undying gratitude of an emancipated race and the general approval of mankind. Upon international law he was more profoundly learned than upon the subject which most contributed to build up and support his reputation. Deducting whatever truth may demand, a stern deduction the deceased never omitted, the brightness of his fame will not serve to perpetuate the memory of any stain upon the purity of his private or public character, and there will still remain the imperishable record of a memorable career, something that the highest ambition aims to grasp and that heroes die to obtain, or much of the real elements of greatness and all the glory of a historic name.

Mr. PRATT said as a legislator and statesman Mr. Sumner deserved to be held up as an example to others. He was earnest and unswerving in his convictions, and devoted his years from early manhood to the overthrow of human slavery and the cause of civil rights. It was no mere passion for notoriety that inspired him. Henceforth Sumner would divide with the martyred Lincoln the love and respect of the colored race. No one ever ventured to assail the purity of Mr. Sumner's public or private life.

In conclusion, he sent to the clerk's desk and had read a preamble and resolution adopted by the colored people at Logansport, Indiana.

Mr. SARGENT spoke of the courage, manliness and high achievements of Mr. Sumner.

Mr. SHERMAN said that at no previous period of Mr. Sumner's life would his death have caused such sorrow. He spoke of the industry, fixed convictions, steady purpose and honesty of Mr. Sumner, and concluded as follows: May we be so guided here that when our time comes our associates may be able truly to say of us something of the good that is this day said of Charles Sumner.

Senators Wadleigh and Anthony also delivered speeches eulogistic of the life and public services of Mr. Sumner, and then the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Bills Introduced.

Under the call of States, many bills were introduced and referred, including the following:

By Mr. LAWRENCE—To facilitate the resumption of specie payments and to prevent fluctuations in the value of United States notes.

By Mr. CROSSLAND—Repealing all laws imposing a tax on State banks.

By Mr. FORD—To impose a tax of five per cent. on all incomes of individuals and corporations exceeding $5,000.

By Mr. BRIGHT—Declaring it oppressive to impose additional taxation and inexpedient to retrench on necessary appropriations already made in the interest of commerce, and providing, as a measure of temporary relief, for the issue of an additional fifty millions of legal tender notes.

By Mr. POLAND—To provide a free system of national banking and for the resumption of specie payments.

Mr. FRYE offered a resolution, directing the Committee on Reform in the Civil Service to consider carefully and forthwith the subject of officers of the Senate and House, with a view to remove any inequality or injustice existing. Adopted.

Mr. HALE (Me.) introduced a bill amending the Shipping Commissioners' act so as not to apply to sail or steam vessels engaged in the coastwise trade or in the lake trade touching at foreign points or otherwise, or in the trade between the United States and British North American possessions, or in any case where seamen are, by custom or agreement, entitled to participate in the profits or result of a course or voyage. Passed.

Eulogies on Senator Sumner.

A message being received from the Senate in reference to the death of Senator Sumner, Mr. E. R. HOAR offered a resolution that as an additional mark of respect to the memory of Charles Sumner, long a Senator from Massachusetts, and in sympathy with the action of the Senate, business be now suspended in the House to allow fitting tributes to be paid to his public and private virtues.

The resolution was adopted and Mr. E. R. HOAR addressed the House in eulogy of Mr. Sumner.

Mr. HOAR alluded to Mr. Sumner's life, and gave a brief history of his career to the hour of his death, which he attributed to the assault of Preston Brooks. No doubt he died a martyr to the cause of liberty as truly as they who fell on the field of battle. The bludgeon preceded the bayonet and the bullet in the civil war, which began long before 1861, and did its work of death as surely, if more slowly.

Mr. HOAR paid a high tribute to Mr. Sumner's great honesty and integrity, and summed up by applying to him the eulogy that had been pronounced on Milton. He alluded to Mr. Sumner's dying remark that "He was so weary," and closed by saying: "The weary are at rest. The good and faithful servant has entered into the joy of his Lord."

Speeches were also made by Messrs. Lamar, Orth, Rainey, Dawes, Potter, Kelley, Nesmith, G. F. Hoar, Conger and Phillips. The most notable speech was that of Mr. Lamar, of Mississippi, who spoke as follows:

Mr. Speaker, I rise to second the resolutions presented by the member from Massachusetts. I believe that they express a sentiment which pervades the hearts of all people whose representatives are here assembled. Strange, as in looking back upon the past, the assertion may seem, impossible, as it would have been ten years ago to make, it is not less true, that to-day Mississippi regrets the death of Charles Sumner, and sincerely unites in paying honors to his memory—not because of the splendor of his intellect; not because of the high culture, elegant scholarship and varied learning which revealed themselves so clearly in all his public efforts as to justice; the application to him of Johnson's felicitous expression: "He touched nothing which he did not adorn;" not this, but because of those peculiar and strangely marked moral traits of character which gave coloring to the whole tenor of his singularly dramatic public career, making him for a long period, to a large portion of his countrymen, the object of as deep and passionate a hostility as to another he was one of enthusiastic admiration, and which are not the less the cause that now unite all these parties, so widely differing, in a common sorrow to-day over his lifeless remains.

Mr. LAMAR went on to speak of the high moral qualities of Mr. Sumner and of the characteristics which brought the illustrious Senator just passed away into direct and bitter antagonism for years with his own State and her sister States of the South.

On the conclusion of the eulogies, the House adjourned.

HARRISBURG.

The Judicial Salary Bill Not Yet Through its Tribulations—The Susquehanna Riot—Down on a Uniform System of School Books.

Special to the Gazette.

HARRISBURG, April 27, 1874.

SENATE.

The Senate met this evening at seven o'clock.

Correcting an Error.

The first business in hand was the correction of an error in reference to the Judicial Salary bill. The Clerk, it will be remembered, made a mistake in announcing the vote on the final passage of the bill. That vote just changed the result. To remedy the difficulty, and get the business before the Senate in ship-shape again, the proceedings setting forth its final passage were expunged from the journal, and the bill then recommitted to the committee.

Bills Introduced.

Mr. MCCLURE introduced an act to enable mining, manufacturing and trading companies to wind up their affairs.

Mr. WAREAM, an act to authorize railroad companies to purchase corporate franchises of railroad companies in neighboring States.

Looking Into that Riot.

Mr. COOPER offered a resolution directing the Railroad Committee to inquire into the causes of the difficulties among the railroad hands in Susquehanna county, and to report what legislation is necessary to prevent a recurrence of the trouble.

HOUSE.

Mr. PIPER introduced a bill to prevent the sale of adulterated and poisonous liquors.

Mr. WOLFE for the erection of Poor Houses and support of the poor in the State.

The School Book Question.

Several remonstrances were presented from School Boards against the bill authorizing the establishment of a Commission to select an uniform system of books for use in the Public Schools.

Wages.

The supplement to the act for the better protection of miners, mechanics and laborers, was called up and passed finally. ARCTIC.

THE WHISKY WAR.

The Campaign Recommenced in Columbus—The Ladies Ask for "Crusade Water," but are Ejected from a Saloon.

COLUMBUS, O., April 27.—Crusade matters have been very quiet here for some time, until this morning, and now the old time excitement is up again. Charles Wagner, proprietor of an eating and drinking house on High street, advertised a grand opening to-day, proposing to sell several liquors bearing the names of "Crusade Water" and the names of one or two of the prominent ladies connected with the crusade. Upon seeing this advertisement, seventy ladies marched to his place to-day, and a small squad, headed by Mrs. Desselein, President of the Ladies League, stepped into the store, and said they had accepted his invitation to a free lunch and would like a little "crusade water." Wagner refused to sell or give them any. They then attempted to pass into the dining room, when Wagner ordered the party from his premises. The party refused to leave, saying he had invited the public, and they, as a part of them, had come to get their part of the good things. Wagner then seized several ladies and pushed them out of doors. He then grabbed Mrs. Desselein by the arm and pushed her toward the door, and some of the ladies say he struck her, but several men present say he only pushed her. Wagner's wife then seized Mrs. Desselein by the throat while Wagner commenced his work on other ladies. Men from the outside then rushed in, and for a time a war of words and some little scuffling took place. A posse of police had arrived by this time and the trouble was over for a time. A large crowd congregated in the street and blockaded the sidewalk. The police cleared the walk and commanded the ladies to keep moving. They obeyed this order by walking in a procession up and down in front of Wagner's place. The crowd of men would have dispersed at the suggestion of the police, but Wagner begged them to stay, saying he would bail out of jail any man arrested for obstructing the sidewalk.

The crowd in front of Wagner's restaurant this afternoon about four o'clock became so large that Captain Keeler persuaded the ladies to leave the street. Then they repaired to the yard connected with the High street Methodist Church and held a prayer meeting during the balance of the afternoon. A warrant was sworn out against Wagoner for his assault on Mrs. Desselein, and the case will be heard to-morrow.

Crusading Across the Ocean.

LONDON, April 27.—The whisky crusade was begun in Manchester to-day. Several signatures to the pledge were obtained.

THE FLOOD.

Three Hundred Homeless Families in One Parish.

NEW ORLEANS, April 27.—A resolution of a public meeting in West Baton Rouge states that three hundred families in that parish have been rendered homeless by inundations from crevasses.

A City Under Water.

Brashear City is overflowed. The railroad embankment there is the only thoroughfare. The merchants have nearly all built bridges connecting with the embankment, and raised their store floors. Small boats are in general use.

Aid for the Sufferers.

Col. H. C. Hodge, Quartermaster U. S. A., arrived yesterday, and turned over to the Distributing Committee for the sufferers by the overflow 25,000 lined sack-coats, 25,000 foraging caps, 25,000 pairs of shoes, and 4,000 blankets.

The Cotton Exchange sends two thousand dollars contributed by citizens of Savannah for the overflowed.

The Teche Country.

Advices from the Teche country report that the crevasse water is still rising. The indications are that the Morgans & Texas Railroad will be partly overflowed.

CHICAGO.

Important Decision in a Bankrupt Case.

CHICAGO, April 27.—An important decision was rendered in the United States District Court to-day by Judge Blodgett, in a case involving the right of the wife or daughter of a bankrupt to hold against his assignee personal property given them by said bankrupt in payment of services rendered as his clerk or agent. In this case the assignee of Jonathan Hay, a dealer in musical instruments and sewing machines at Springfield, Ill., who, having absconded, was thrown into bankruptcy, seized upon a piano belonging to Hay's daughter and several sewing machines in possession of Mrs. Hay, which they claimed were turned over to them by the husband and father in payment of their services in his store. Judge Blodgett to-day decided that the plaintiffs were legally entitled to the goods in question, and ordered the assignee to return them to their possession. The case possesses additional interest from the fact that it has been conducted throughout on the part of the plaintiffs by Miss Alta M. Halett, the lady lawyer of this city.

NOTES FROM OUR NEIGHBORS.

FARMERS report cheerful indications of good crops.

JOE JEFFERSON is on a Rip-ping tour in the oil regions.

MILLERSTOWN is doing up the "Phoenix" business with rapidity.

BOTH the Chautauqua and Mayville Houses, in Mayville, are being enlarged and improved for the coming pleasure season.

AN official report and statement of the condition of the Conneautville bank has been made which shows that there is a "shortage" of $20,825.17. Of this amount $13,500 was taken on the night of the robbery, and the rest is unaccounted for. Of the bonds stolen claims have been made for $25,000, but thus far vouchers have been presented for $22,000.

NELLY MACARTHY, the brave girl who jumped from the topmost window of the Central Hotel during the great conflagration at Millerstown, is progressing favorably and will soon be able to sit up occasionally. She denies emphatically the fictitious story of an unreliable Titusville reporter about her death having occurred a few hours after the fearful leap for life.

A COUPLE of Indiana foot pads, recently waylaid a man in that borough, and commanded him to stand and deliver. He wasn't that sort of man, however, for, whipping out a revolver, he made his assailants not only surrender, but also unmask themselves. On promise given that they would refrain from the line of life they were then pursuing, and go to church regularly thereafter, they were permitted to slink off to their homes.

A MCKEESPORT young man is wanted. He wooed and won the affections of a fair maiden, who placed too much confidence in her lover. He was to be married to her, but an hour before he was to be wedded to the girl he had deceived, he was married to another young lady at a hotel in the village. The other party had made ready for the wedding, and, after tedious delay, these facts were developed, he having previously left town. He had taken a boat to Brownsville, and from there he returned to McKeesport, where he met his bride and her father, and the newly wedded pair left for "fresh fields and pastures new." A warrant has been issued for the gay youth, but it is not likely that he will return to the "fields of his fame."

WASHINGTON, April 27, 1874.

The Arkansas Governorship.

The latest news from Arkansas shows that the forces of the two Governors are still under arms and the United States troops watching both. It seems certain, however, that Baxter will regain the State House without a resort to arms. Attorney General Williams will to-morrow transmit to Speaker Blaine, under a call of the House, an opinion of the majority of the Arkansas Supreme Court, rendered last year, in the case of Arkansas upon the relation of Joseph Brooks vs. Elisha Baxter. The opinion is explicit upon the question of jurisdiction in any case of contest for the office of Governor. It closes as follows:

"Under the Constitution the determination of a question whether a person exercising the office of Governor has been duly elected or not is vested exclusively in the General Assembly, and neither this nor any other State Court has jurisdiction to try a suit in relation to such contest, be the mode or form what it may. Such issue should be made before the General Assembly. It is their duty to decide, and no other tribunal can determine that question.

(Signed) "L. GREGG,
"M. L. STEPHENSON,
"E. J. SEARLE.

"Certified to by S. W. Cox, Clerk of the Supreme Court."

As the case seems remanded to the Legislature, which meets on May 11, it is expected that that body will settle it without further interposition of either the State or national military forces. Baxter's friends, however, assert that a combination of railroad operators expect to make five million dollars on railroad bonds by getting Baxter out of office, and with such a prize in view the railroad combination will disregard legislative or other decisions that stand in their way.

Compromise Finance Bill.

The compromise proposed by Blaine and other eastern members in the House is free banking, with the retirement of $1,000,000 of greenbacks for every $4,000,000 of national bank notes issued, to fix the amount of greenbacks at $382,000,000, abolish the bank reserves in circulation, authorize the conversion of greenbacks into a four and a half per cent. thirty year bond, to begin on the 1st of January, 1878, the greenbacks converted to be paid out again in the purchase of five-twenty bonds. The measure admits of much greater expansion than the vetoed bill. Senator Morton is anxious to prevent bitter debate and preserve the harmony of the party. DIAMOND.

WASHINGTON, April 27, 1874.

The Sanborn Contracts Investigation.

The Committee on Ways and Means to-day examined A. Goodrich Fay, who, being sworn, was examined by Mr. Beck. He said he was a lawyer, residing in New York. His business connections with Sanborn commenced, he thought, in 1868 or 1869, and had reference only to the stock of western railroads and of the Adams Express Company. He had always advised with Sanborn in a friendly and professional way. He had never had any money transactions with Sanborn except as to the matter just stated. As to Sanborn's contracts, he never knew he had a case in Brooklyn or a railroad case.

In answer to a question why he went to England, witness said he had contemplated for years going abroad to educate his children. He mentioned this to Sanborn, who said that while abroad he could attend to some important business for the Government as well as to his own private affairs. It turned out that while he could not be appointed as counsel he could go out as agent for the Treasury. He did not know who brought about the appointment. He made nothing out of this appointment. There were something that Madge, the head of the Special Agent Bureau, said he could finish up.

In answer to further inquiries, witness said he was the advisor of Sanborn to accept the terms of settlement proposed by Waddell, and for this service he never received a cent. He did not know who made application that he should be appointed agent abroad. He never said a word to any member of Congress about it. He did not think anybody advised him to get the office. Sanborn was anxious he should obtain the office. The business he was to attend to in Europe was with reference to customs undervaluations. There was certain information submitted to him. His business was to visit certain foreign cities and compare the evidence with the consular records and samples, and find out whether they were good cases or not. He did the work. He could not give the names of these cases. He did not make a special report and knew of no list. The names of the cases were in the department, but there was nothing to indicate that he had anything to do with them.

The committee this afternoon examined Jas. E. Caldwell, of Philadelphia, who testified that the confidential bookkeeper of the firm with which he is connected stole certain invoices and other documents, and placed them in the hands of B. G. Jayne, Government Special Agent at New York. Caldwell went to New York and saw Jayne, who, with the stolen papers before him, said that this was the most complete case of fraud he had ever had, and claimed that they had forfeited $80,000 to the Government, but that he could settle the case in two minutes. He could either take the matter into Court or compromise it. It was finally agreed to compromise for $50,000. Of this sum $32,500 had been paid, and now application has been made to the Secretary of the Treasury to reopen the case. The witness related that Wm. P. Wood, an ex-Government chief detective, came to him, saying that Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, had agreed to give him $1,000 for an article containing all the facts in the Caldwell case. Witness consulted his partners, who said "here is another dangerous blow, and if this man has possession of all the facts and can spread them in such a way as to damage our credit, we had better close with his proposition," which was the payment of $2,000, $1,000 for withholding the article and the other $1,000 for his influence at Washington. This money was paid, and Wood gave a paper signed by himself, saying that from an examination of the case he believed that Caldwell & Co. did not intend to defraud the Government.

During the cross-examination witness said the article which Wood prepared did not appear in the New York Sun.

A Fight for a Government Job.

For the last four years, in view of the report of Senator Edmunds on the Printing Bureau, a portion of the legal tender and fractional currency notes has been printed by each of the New York bank note companies, leaving the finishing impression to be executed by the Treasury Department. Owing to the recent establishment of the Columbia Bank Note Co. in Washington, which is now printing Government notes, representatives of the New York companies are now here, and have had a hearing before the House Committee on Banking and Currency, their object being to have a law passed restoring the former position of affairs as relates to themselves.

Fred. R. Stanton to-day appeared before the committee as a representative of the Columbia Bank Note Co. He was asked by Mr. Hubbard, who in part represents the combined New York companies, about the issue of $30,000 of stock of the Columbia Company to Stanton as trustee for S. P. Smith, of New York. Stanton's answer brought out the fact that the stock had been given as a consideration for Smith's influence in obtaining a contract from the Treasury Department for the Columbia Company.

Assistant Secretary Sawyer protested against the proposition of the Hubbard men to examine employes of the Treasury Department without first applying to the Secretary, the Department always being ready to give proper facilities for that purpose.

Almost a Run on a Savings Bank.

Reports were in circulation to-day that the Freedman's Savings Bank had closed its doors, but they were unfounded. During the forenoon a few depositors called at the bank with their check books, for the purpose of closing their accounts, but fearing a run on the institution, the management applied the rule in their charter which authorized the bank to require sixty days' notice previous to the withdrawal of deposits. Depositors requiring money for current business purposes were accommodated.

BY MAIL.

Late News from China and Japan.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The Pacific mail steamer Colorado arrived this afternoon from Hong Kong and Yokohama, bringing news from Yokohama to April 7th. Statements have appeared declaring that the Emperor of Russia has declined to arbitrate between Japan and Peru in the case of Mari Luz, but dispatches from the Japanese legation in St. Petersburg positively announce that he has consented.

Some comment has been excited among Japanese officials by the circumstance that in the publication by Yokohama newspapers of the Mikado's reply to the memorable New Year's address of the foreign representatives, a significant expression toward the close has been altered or suppressed. It was to the effect that Japan would accept such intercourse as was consistent with the dignity of an independent nation, and was intended to mark the disapprobation of the Government in regard to the importunities of the address.

Yieto, the leader of the Sague insurrection, after vainly seeking a refuge in Satsuma, is now a fugitive in the islands of the inland sea.

Reports concerning the expedition to Formosa are not without foundation. Envoys from Linkin, who visited in Yeddo in 1872, says he sought the protection of Japan against the misdeeds of a Formosan tribe which had a number of shipwrecked sailors from Linkin. That Kingdom having been formerly annexed to Japan, protection was promised and negotiations were entered into with China for the purpose of ascertaining what authority, if any, that nation claimed over the marauding tribe. China disavowed any responsibility, and the Japanese made preparations to send a force to take possession of a part of the island and keep the inhabitants in proper subjection. Various circumstances have delayed the execution of this project, but everything is now in readiness, and a small fleet will immediately sail for the scene of the outrages. No hostile action is intended unless it should prove absolutely necessary, in which case the Japanese are fully prepared. The foreign assistants in the expedition are all American. Lieutenant Cassell, U. S. N., late commanding the Ashulox, and Lieutenant Wasson, U. S. A., until recently engaged in the Zezo Colonization Department, are the naval military advisers. Over political and general details, Gen. Legendre, formerly United States Consul at Amoy, exercises supervision. The plan will occupy a long time in carrying out, and the Japanese do not expect to firmly establish themselves before the end of the year. It is believed by many that Formosa was an ancient dependency of Japan, and that in assuming control of a part of the eastern coast this empire is only resuming a share of what was formerly its own. The first detachment of the expedition will start hence on the 9th or 10th inst. The Commander-in-Chief will be Saigo Kitenouske, a younger brother of the distinguished Satsuman statesman.

ARKANSAS.

The War in Little Rock—No Material Change in the Situation.

LITTLE ROCK, April 27.—There is no material change between the two belligerent Governors or the United States forces. Baxter's men to-day removed an old siege piece from the lower end of the town, which was used by the Confederate forces during the war, and stationed it at the corner of Markham and Scott streets. It is a sixty-four pounder, and has been cleaned out, ready for action. Baxter's forces were increased by the arrival of one company from Homestead county to-day. A portion of Brooks' forces now occupy the Benjamin block, opposite the State House, and were drilling to-day. Both sides are expecting reinforcements to-night. The people generally seem to be satisfied that the Legislature should settle the pending difficulty, though the Brooks side say the Legislature will not meet in obedience to Governor Baxter's call.

Both sides have sent delegations to Washington to present their side of the question.

THE ALLEGHENY MAYORALTY

Who Will Fill Out That Unexpired Term.

The question as to a successor to Mayor Callow is not yet settled, and matters in that direction do not seem as harmonious as was at first anticipated. It will be remembered that Mr. Fleming, when solicited to be a candidate, expressly stipulated that he would not allow the use of his name for a contest. It was thought that under the proposition made to him in reference to the fees, and which he accepted, that all opposition would be withdrawn—which was the case for a few days. Since, however, the matter has been reconsidered and one of the candidates, Deputy Mayor Neillie, yesterday, yielding to the wishes of his friends, announced himself as a candidate. Mr. Neillie proposes to give one-half the fees of the office to the family of the lately deceased Mayor, and it is claimed that as he will give all his time to the office, that the fees will be greater and the ultimate revenue to the late Mayor's family would be fully as much as under the proposition submitted to Mr. Fleming.

In the meantime the temperance folks are talking of putting in nomination Mr. W. B. Ross to run on a prohibition platform, and they have called a meeting for Thursday night to consider the proposition.

There was a rumor last evening that the city Republican Executive Committee would be called together to take some action in the matter, but any movement contemplated in this direction has not yet assumed definite shape.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 113⅝.

THE dissolution of the Reichsrath, by the Emperor William, in a brief congratulatory address, indicates that he is well satisfied with the results of legislation had on the Army bill.

IT is intimated that the consideration of the veto message will be postponed, when it comes up for consideration to-day. This will be a practical confession of defeat by those who oppose it.

THE Carlists in Spain have the encouragement that may be derived from the statement that the French Government have sent agents to ascertain their strength, with the purpose of acting upon such report as they may bring in determining whether to recognize the belligerency of Don Carlos.

THE Evening Chronicle, fair, fat and forty, even in its old clothes, was much valued in good society, and had hosts of friends. It may be a little mere presentable and challenge more compliments now that it has donned a bran new dress and wears it so becomingly, but we doubt if its good manners, good taste, and generally exemplary conduct can be improved.

THERE are rumors current to the effect that Secretary Richardson's resignation is in the bands of the President, that he will be nominated to the vacancy in the Court of Claims, and that his successor will be either the banker Patterson, of Philadelphia, or J. D. Cameron. Patterson is under a cloud in this State, owing to his having sent money to the blackmailers at Harrisburg, in connection with the usury bill.

WE received, a short time since, a circular from an interested book publisher, containing arguments why a uniform text book system should not be established. The arguments there developed reappear in an evening cotemporary, supplemented with an intimation that such a system will be attended with rascality and political corruption. This last is an argument that can always be brought into play, when all others seem trivial. What is easier or more unanswerable than a general charge of rascality?

OUR views on the subject of increased currency have been stated with sufficient clearness, from time to time, for us to be properly understood when we suggest that it is extremely unwise for our friends, who comprise the majority in Congress, to issue an address to the country on the subject. It will be equivalent to a declaration of war on the President. It will be better for some one to be selected to thoroughly and properly explain and defend the views of those who favor a larger volume of currency. This can be done without disrespect to the President; the other cannot.

IT TURNS OUT that the failure of the West and South to have the amount of currency that they should is not, as the veto message implies, their fault. The four millions referred to has been applied for, but the system of precedence followed by the Comptroller prevents the prompt distribution of the currency. It, and many millions besides, have been applied for. The Comptroller of the Currency, however, claims that under the law that regulates the redistribution of the currency, it will take more than two years to thoroughly redistribute the currency of the country. He proposes a new law that will admit of it being done in sixty days' time.

THE Democrats in the Legislature caucused up a little scheme last week, to embarrass the Republicans of the House, by offering a resolution, and calling for the ayes and nays upon it, endorsing President Grant's veto message. An amendment by way of a substitute was promptly moved, to endorse President Grant's administration; and to this an addition was made, including Governor Hartranft's administration in the legislative commendation. As thus amended and improved, the Republicans of the House voted for, and the Democrats against it. The game so laboriously contrived was entirely spoiled,—and those who dug the pit-fall ignominously fell in it.

THE Judicial salary bill is not, after all, a finality. It turns out that it would have passed the Senate,—properly, did pass,—but was counted down by means of an unintentional clerical error. It comes up to-day for such consideration as may seem proper. If action is sufficiently delayed for this paragraph to meet the eyes of our Senators, we urge that a principle of equity and fairness should lead to a more liberal salary being voted the Judges in large cities. Certainly Sheriffs and Prothonotarys are not more valuable than Judges. We do not complain at the amount paid these, but we insist that more liberal compensation should certainly be bestowed on the Judges of our Courts.

AT THE close of the morning hour, in Congress, yesterday, the remainder of the session was devoted to eulogies in memory of Senator Sumner. His colleague in the Senate, Mr. Boutwell, made the formal announcement of the demise of Senator Sumner, accompanying it with remarks appropriate to the occasion. He referred to his devotion to liberty as the leading feature of Mr. Sumner's life,—his grand idea. Senator Sargent, of California, also referred to the courage, manliness, singleness of purpose, and great achievements of Senator Sumner. Senator Anthony's address was a tribute of warm and loving regard for the deceased statesman. In the House, Mr Dawes and Mr. Waddell, of North Carolina, followed Judge Hoar, who made the announcement of the death of Senator Sumner.

THE fearful overflow of the bottom lands of the Mississippi, should induce Congress to consider practical measures for the permanent restraining of that remarkably erratic river to its proper channel. We are averse, as a rule, to outlays being made from the United States Treasury for other than necessary purposes; yet we hold that the National Government should conserve the well-being of the country, and where there is special and palpable need of effort to prevent the yearly destruction of property, it should employ and pay for the necessary preventive measure. The Mississippi is one of the great public water ways of this country. Along it are valuable cotton growing and sugar producing lands, and any injury that may happen to these results in a loss to the entire country. It is now declared that nine of the most important parishes of the cotton and sugar producing region are under water,—and that not less than 5,000,000 acres of these valuable lands will thus be rendered nonproductive for the present season. This is a fearful showing, and all the worse for the reason that some 200,000 persons are declared to be in a condition of danger and suffering because of these floods. There certainly can be a safe and permanent method devised for preventing these frequent breaks. We hope the Government will do something in that direction.

THERE are good prospects for a large peach crop in Delaware. A few days since the peach growers of that State held a meeting to counsel with each other as to the best method of getting their peaches promptly to market. It came out that they will have serious difficulty in securing facilities for sending peaches beyond New York,—while Pittsburgh is among the favored points that will be easily reached, at rates of freight that ought to give us peaches at reasonable prices. Concerning the crop prospects, the view taken was that in New Castle county conditions are favorable, and thus far there is every prospect of a large crop. From the northern portion of Kent reports are likewise favorable, for though a great deal of fruit has been killed, a great deal has escaped. Immediately around Dover there will be from a quarter to a half a crop, the trees that did not bear fruit last year being less hurt than others. In southern Kent and in Sussex the crop is ruined, and not a single grower from that portion of the State attended the meeting. In Kent county, Maryland, the crop will be good, but in Queen Anne's, Caroline and Somerset it is much injured. Of course it is not yet beyond danger anywhere, but with reasonably good weather from two and a half to three millions of baskets will be sent to market.

THE tax bill, passed by the Legislature, and signed by the Governor, is probably as just as any bill that could probably be framed for raising State revenues. It imposes a tax on corporations, including a tax of three cents per ton on coal; this last phase of the bill was resisted while it was pending in the Legislature, but it was retained on the general principle that it would be in violation of the Constitution to exempt any corporation from taxation. The coal mined in this State has been estimated at a yearly value of $80,000,000, and represents probably from $300,000 to $500,000 revenue to the State under this tax. Yet the amount of three cents added to the cost of the coal will really exert no influence on the market value of that article. As the coal trade is now conducted, the anthracite production is managed under a system closely allied in principle to gambling. The supply is increased or lessened, and the price of labor regulated by the necessities or interests of the operators. With the Legislature this question of taxation was an exceedingly important one. The great desire was to avoid taxing real estate, and yet to provide for the necessities of the State Treasury. As we view it, this very important duty has been wisely accomplished, and the revenues derivable from the sources referred to will probably be amply sufficient for the needs of the Treasury.

EDUCATING TEACHERS.

We notice an assumption, on the part of some of the press, that the bill looking to the development of Normal Schools, in such districts in the State as have not established them, is entirely unnecessary; the idea being that at the present our teachers are properly qualified for their duties. We have no desire to underrate the merits of those who have adopted the profession of teaching, but certainly there is no valid objection to all the advantages being furnished that can be reached. The State Superintendent is authority for the statement that but but a few hundred out of the thousands of teachers in the State are properly qualified for their duties. Of course it depends on the character of the standard set up, whether judgment is favorable or otherwise, but let the requirements be but moderate, and the criticism will probably stand. Nor will the qualities of teachers, as we have them among us, in this city, answer to be used as a basis of judgment for the country portions of the State. Our city teachers are graduates of our High School, and of the Soho training school, and, as a rule, are fairly qualified for the duties that devolve upon them. They lack, of course, at the outset, that experience and maturity of judgment which is the result of experience, and which will be gained in due course of time. But with all this, Pittsburgh can fairly claim to have, on the average, an earnest, intelligent, devoted and successful class of teachers, who are gradually raising the standard of common school education, and making the ward schools attractive, and effective educating agencies.

But Pittsburgh, or Philadelphia, or any of the larger towns, presumably well supplied with efficient teachers, are not the State. There are vast reaches of country, comprising in area and population the larger part of the State, where the qualities of the teachers and schools are quite inferior. It is with a view of reaching these that a bill is pending in the Legislature, looking to the development of renewed activity and facility in the work of preparing teachers for their duties. This is merely to give effect to the provisions of the new Constitution, pertaining to the subject of education. The requirement that not less than a million of dollars be appropriated to education compels the Legislature to increase the maximum allowance thirty per cent. It may do as much more than this as it chooses, but this much it must do. The question of public education, under this requirement, became an exceedingly important one. To lavishly expend money was at once recognized as unwise. To avoid a lavish outlay, it is proposed to make our educational system more worthy than it is, of the expenditure. Of course, the first duty was to bring the teachers up to a higher standard of capability. This done, and conveniences, in the form of improved buildings, and the appurtenances of advanced methods of teaching, must be provided. Thus, years must elapse before much that is preliminary can be accomplished. But it is necessary that all this be done; and it is wise to commence at once with the work of bringing teachers to a better standard. This done, and other favorable results will naturally follow. That there is great necessity for this, all who have given attention to the subject must admit.

Subsidiary to this, are other matters pending in the Legislature. We have felt free to commend pretty much everything the Legislature has had before it, looking to the perfection of our educational system. The appropriation, out of the million required, of $15,000 for technical education was a wise measure. The proposition to appoint a Commissioner to examine text books, with a view to a uniform system of books in the schools of the State is undoubtedly wise, on the score of uniformity, economy and system. It will do much toward rendering our entire system homogeneous, more manageable, and more efficient. Under this system, whatever changes may be made in the residence of families, or the place of employment of teachers, they will find the same text books, the same general system, and will, thus, be able to go forward in their studies without annoyance or difficulty. But we regard as most important of all, the thorough education and training of teachers. And if we seek to improve the practical working of the schools, this must be done.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A MRS. ALLING, of Saukville, has in her possession old Continental scrip having a face value of $224. It was paid to her grandfather for cattle delivered to General Washington's army at White Plains. She is also the possessor of a pair of snuffers used by Washington at his headquarters there.

BOSTON is to have a new English High and Latin school building, which is estimated to cost $450,000. Premiums will be paid for the four best plans submitted, these being severally $1,000, $800, $600, $400. All plans must be sent in before the 1st of May. Two hundred architects have been furnished with the specifications.

IT is said that many of those who went to the gold mines of French Guiana are returning. The fields are 100 miles inland, and it takes 150 miles of paddle-boat travel and a five or six days' journey through tangled undergrowth to reach them; then the gold, which is found in rotten quartz, is in from two to six feet of black mud, whence rises an effluvia which no white man can endure, and the water is so poisonous that the natives drink nothing but wine.

THE Globe Theatre in Chicago was entirely destroyed by fire about two o'clock on Monday morning. The building was owned by the German Workingmen's Society, and the loss is estimated at about $5,500; insured for about $4,500. The fire originated in some unexplained manner, and is thought to have been the work of an incendiary.

LAST YEAR, up to this date, says the Toledo Blade of April 20th, there were no shipments of flour by lake, while the shipments of wheat amounted to 58,647 bushels; and of corn 20,058 bushels, and no oats. This year the shipments by lake have been, flour, 2,875 barrels; wheat, 171,851 bushels; corn, 543,991 bushels, and oats, 25,948 bushels. The increase in railroad shipments has also been very large.

THE York Gazette says the will of the late Charles A. Morris, of that borough, was admitted to probate on the 18th inst., in which he devises to his brother, Dr. J. B. Morris, of Baltimore, his lots of ground in and near the village of Lutherville, Baltimore county, Maryland; his house purchased for the colored man Louis, and absolutely $25,000. Among other bequests are: To the Children's Home in York, $3,000; to the Theological Seminary of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States at Gettysburg, $3,000; to St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church at York, $7,000; to Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, $20,000; in trust for St. Paul's Lutheran Church, $2,000; to the Children's Home in York, absolutely, $5,000; to the Orphans' Home, Loysville, Pa., $2,000, and numerous other bequests, besides personal property to relatives and friends of his late deceased wife.

FOREIGN NOTES.

RICH deposits of tin have been discovered in Tasmania.

A LETTER says that the Czar is expected at the Hague on the 12th of May, at the celebration of the King of Holland's twenty-fifth anniversary of his accession, and will arrive in England a few days later.

THE London Builder says: "We have built in England and Wales, in the way of dwelling houses alone, upward of £1,000,000,000 sterling worth of property, roughly speaking, since the year 1801; and within the ten years only, between 1861 and 1871, we have built dwelling houses to the value of more than £220,000,000 sterling."

THE story is told that there has been serious difficulty, requiring even diplomatic intervention, in regard to the rank and precedence of the Duchess of Edinburgh. At all events there seems to be some disappointment. At the Clarence House it is said that the Duchess has been struck by a sudden change from the cordial demonstrations which graced her arrival and the humdrum obscurity into which she has since fallen. Nobody knows her or takes any notice of her except in Hyde Park.

THE REV. DANIEL F. WATKINS, Protestant Missionary at Guadalo Jara, Mexico, has addressed a letter to the Secretary of the American Board of Foreign Missions, giving an account of the murder of Rev. Mr. Stephens. He says Mr. Stephens had been in the hayloft but a few moments when a furious throng entered where he had taken refuge. Seeing soldiers in the crowd he ran to meet them, thinking they had come to his help, and when he cried out, "Protect me, protect me!" they replied, "They come, they come!" and at the same time the soldiers and others discharged their muskets and other firearms on my beloved brother, killing him instantly. One shot entered his eye, and several his breast. As soon as the villains reached him they used their swords, cutting his head totally to pieces and taking his brains out, it is said, with sticks. They afterwards robbed his body of every article he had on, and the house of everything he had. They took all his books and burned them in the public place. A small English Bible that was in the martyr's hand when he died shared the same fate, and lest the awful crime should fail to prove of the utmost barbarity, they entered the church and announced the deed as well done by ringing twice a merry peal of bells.

LETTERS from St. Petersburg give some particulars of the disorders in Poland growing out of the attempts to force the inhabitants to attach themselves to the Russian National Church. The priests of twenty-six parishes in the Government of Seidle were all thrown into prison on refusing to carry out the orders of the Russo-Greek Church. The peasants refused to recognize the Russian priests or attend the churches, whereupon they were sent there by force. In some places the peasantry stoned the priests, and in the village of Craief resistance was made to the military, and some soldiers and officers were wounded by pikes and stones. The soldiers fired on the peasantry and a large number were killed. In the village of Protenlin similar disturbances took place, in which several officers and many soldiers were killed and some fifty-seven peasants were shot down. The prisons at Seidle and other chief towns are crowded with prisoners. The inhabitants of the troubled districts were sentenced to be beaten, the men fifty blows, and the women twenty-five, while children received ten blows each, without distinction of age or sex. Some women who were violent in their language received as many as one hundred and fifty blows.

THE FAMINE IN INDIA.

Conflicting Accounts of the Condition of the Population.

The accounts from the famine districts are much more favorable and tend to show that distress will be confined to North Tirhut and Bhagalpur. In its yesterday's number the Friend of India out-Herods Herod. Not only does our contemporary defend his statement of last week that 2,000,000 of people were beginning to look to the Government for their food, but he professes to fear that it erred on the side of moderation. Yet all he succeeds in showing is that, supposing the entire population of Madhubani to be eventually thrown on their hands, there are nearly a million and a quarter of people in Bhagalpur and Tirhut, for whom, sooner or later, the Government must expect to have to provide. His mode of stating this is characteristic. "In one corner only," he says, "a million and a quarter human beings are being provided for." Three-fourths of those who read this sentence will probably understand by it that Government is already feeding that number, instead of, as is actually the case, about a quarter of a million. The same tone of exaggeration and the same perversion of the ordinary meaning of language pervades the whole of our contemporary's famine paragraphs.—Calcutta Englishman, March 13.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, April 28, 1874.

Business on Monday was greatly better than that of Saturday, and the demand for, and transactions in money, proportionately improved. All day Saturday an exceedingly "wet" storm raged, with a very disagreeable effect on business generally. There remains a good supply of money at the banks, available to all legitimate customers, at very favorable rates. Good "outside" paper can be placed without serious difficulty. There is also palpable improvement in real estate, with sales more numerously reported than for a time past.

The general situation seems to tend toward ease. Money is fairly plentiful at reasonable rates, at the large money centres. The London money market also has worked into a condition of settled ease, which, if not disturbed, will prove an important element in our favor—the minimum rate of the bank being down to 3½ per cent., and the outside rate even lower. Experience has proved that, in times of stringency the relief received from that source in various ways amounts to a very important mitigation. While there is reason to expect a slight tightening up of money rates there is good ground for believing that we shall witness no stringency. It is something, therefore, to be permitted to indulge encouraging prospect.

The New York stock market was firmer yesterday. The late severe fall in values induced many outsiders to make investments at the ruling low figures, the stocks thus bought having been paid for and taken out of the street supply. Though individually moderate, these purchases amounted to a very handsome aggregate. In further advancement of the more hopeful feeling which prevailed, now that the currency bill—which was viewed as somewhat of a riddle anyhow—was out of the way, through the action of the Executive, and that the position of the President on the financial issue was again defined in very clear language, the belief was expressed that some practical and judicious solution of the currency difficulty would be determined on, which, while conserving, would also harmonize the interests of the public in relation to the more essential features of the business requirements of the country.

The amount of goods of the previous importation withdrawn from bonded warehouses during the month is $10,252,756, or $1,509,058 less than went into bond; so that the total value of goods marketed during the month, dutiable and free, is $49,339,494, upon which the customs paid are $10,793,793, or at an average tariff (including free goods) of 26.40 per cent. The total value of goods marketed in March, 1873, was $42,121,230, and the average tariff thereon was 30 per cent., or $12,101,274.

NEW YORK, April 27, 1874.

The custom receipts amounted to $494,000, and the Treasury disbursements to $553,000. Money was easy at 3@4. Sterling advanced from 486½ to 488 for sixty days, and from 489½ to 490 for sight, owing to London telegrams and scarcity of commercial bills, closing firm, with actual business at 487¾ and 490. Sterling has now reached a price at which it is profitable to export specie. Gold ranged 112¾@113¼, closing at the latter figure, also owing to London telegrams reporting a loss of specie by the Bank of England and an advance in sterling. The carrying rates were 3@4, closing at 3. The clearings were $32,000,000. Half a million gold is already packed for export, and there is talk that the shipments of the week will reach $2,500,000. State bonds were quiet and nominal. Railroad bonds were neglected. Governments were firm. Leading stocks were alternately weak and strong, until after one o'clock, when the whole market was strong, and prices advanced on numerous inflation bills presented in Congress. The closing quotations, which were generally the highest made, showed an advance of ½ to 2½ per cent., the most marked improvement being in Western Union, Union Pacific, Northwest, Pacific Mail, Lake Shore, St. Paul and Wabash. Union Pacific was especially prominent towards the close, and advanced to 34½ on large purchases. The sales for the day were 197,000 shares, of which 51,000 were Western Union, 19,000 Pacific Mail, 10,000 Northwest, 33,000 Union Pacific, 17,000 Lake Shore, 8,000 Wabash, and 7,500 Erie.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 27, 1874.

APPLES—Continue to come in rather sparingly, but the supply, although by no means large, is fully up to the demand, and we continue to quote at $4@6 ₱ bri. for common to choice.

ASHES—Continue quiet, unusually so at this particular time, owing to a number of the glass factories being idle, but there has been no quotable change in rates for several weeks.

APPLE BUTTER—The arrivals appear to be falling off, but the supply is pretty well up to the demand and prices remain as last quoted, 70@80 cts ₱ gallon, as to quality.

ALE—The market continues in a very unsatisfactory condition to manufacturers, with but little prospect of an improvement; no change in prices. X. $8 ₱ bri. to the city, and $9 to the country; XX. $10. India Ale, $11.

BAGGING—Penn Mill two bushel bags, 35c; two and one-half bushel, 42; three bushel, 50.

BROOM CORN—There is a steady consumptive demand, but it is mainly for small lots, and, notwithstanding the supply in view of the limited arrivals for some time past must be light, there is no change to note in rates: 5@6 for inferior to common, 7@8 for good to choice green and 9@10 ₱ bushel.

BEANS—Continue in good supply and dull, although, possibly, the demand may be increasing somewhat, at least it would be so naturally inferred, in view of their cheapness as compared with other articles of a similar character; however, the arrivals keep up pretty well and the market is overstocked. We continue to quote at $2@2.25 ₱ bushel, the outside figure for prime navies.

BEESWAX—There is but little inquiry yet; the arrivals for some time past have been meagre, and rates are nominally unchanged, ranging from 25@30 cts.

BROOMS—No. 2, $2.25@2.50 ₱ dozen; No. 3, $2.50@2.75; No. 4, $3@3.25; No. 5, $3.25@3.50; No. 6, $3.50@3.75. Carpet Brooms, $4@4.25. Whisps, $1.50@1.75.

BUTTER—The market, notwithstanding the cold, backward weather, is still on the back track; the arrivals not only from abroad, but from the adjoining country, are still increasing; both peddlers and country people are bringing in considerable, and this together with the fact that we are getting but few orders from the interior, many of the small towns that drew on Pittsburgh for the bulk of their stock during the greater part of the winter, are now being supplied at home. Furthermore, dealers realize the situation, that a still further shrinkage in prices is certain, hence they are anxious to keep down stocks, and the result has been a decline of from 3 to 5 cents ₱ lb within the past week. Quotations may be given at 10@15 for common; 20@25 for fair to medium, and 30@32 for prime to choice.

CHEESE—The arrivals have been more liberal during the past week, but with a steady demand there has been no chance for stock to accumulate, hence prices were fully sustained; sales, in a jobbing way, at 12@13 for new Ohio Dairy; 16@17 for new Ohio Factory, and 19 for prime old New York; Ohio Sweitzer, 15@17, as to quality.

COUNTRY BACON—Country Shoulders, 7⅛@8; Clear Sides, 9@9½c; Hams, 9½@10c. Country Lard, 9@9½.

CRANBERRIES—Quotable at from $15@18 ₱ bri, as to quality and condition.

CANNED GOODS—The demand, while it is possibly improving somewhat, is not as active as it usually is at this particular time; while as regards prices there has been no quotable change since the date of our last report. Peaches, 3 lb cans, $3.25@3.35; Tomatoes, $2.25@2.35; Corn, $2.75@2.85, according to brand.

COKE—There is, we regret to state, no improvement to note in this important staple article, and while hopes are entertained that there soon will be, the prospects at this writing are not very encouraging. As regards prices there has been no quotable change, and we continue to quote at $3@3.25 ₱ ton.

COPPER—Following are the card rates, cash as reported by Park & Co.: Braziers' Copper, 13 lb. sheets and upward, 35c. Braziers' Copper, 10, 11 and 12 lb. sheets, 38c. DRIED FRUIT—There is some inquiry for Apples and they are in very light supply: we continue to quote at 9@10; sliced, 12@13. Peaches also more sought after, but the supply, although not large, is well up to the demand; mixed and quarters, 10@12; halves, 14@15; peeled, 18@20. There is considerable inquiry for Berries, Cherries and other small fruits, but the market is bare, hence we omit quotations.

EGGS—The market has ruled fairly active during the past week, hence, notwithstanding the arrivals were liberal, there was no accumulation, and, besides, with a margin to ship to New York, holders have been enabled without difficulty to keep up prices, 18@ 9.

FLOUR—The market has been considerbly stronger in tone, since the date of our last report, under the influence of recent advices from the west, but there has been no quotable change in rates; we continue to quote, in a jobbing way, at $6.75@7.25 for spring wheat flours; $7.75@8.25 for red winter and $9@10; Fancy Minnesota flours $7.75. Dealers generally complain that spring wheat flours are too low, as they are being sold for just about what they cost as laid down at the depot, according to present asking rates in the west. Rye Flour, $5.50@5.75.

FEATHERS—No. 1 live geese, 67@68 wholesale, and 7@10c additional in a jobbing way.

FIRE BRICK—Woodland, $50; Apollo, $30; Bolivar, $30; West Virginia, $16.

GRAIN—The arrivals continue meagre, and with an average demand and diminished stocks, the market is strong, with a decided upward tendency; the fact is prices have been too low here for some time past, taking the cost at the source of supply as a basis, but dealers did not advance prices until they commenced to replenish their depleted stocks. There is more inquiry for Wheat, and with continued light arrivals and little or no stock in the hands of dealers, a sharp advance has been established we now quote at $1.57@1.62 for red and 7@10c additional for White, according to quality. Until within the past week or two there was little or no call for the article, hence it was quoted down below cost of bringing it here, hence the advance to which reference has been made. The Oat market is reported considerably firmer, although not quotably higher, ranging from 55@60, as to quality. Shelled Corn is in light supply, and with considerable inquiry holders have been able to realize an advance—sales have been made at 81 and even 85, but quotations may be fairly given at 80@83, as to quality. Ear Corn continues dull, but prices, in sympathy with Shelled, are fully sustained, 75@77. There is more inquiry for Rye, which may be attributed to some of the distilleries having started up, and as there is little or none offering and our market is bare, prices are higher; we now quote at $1.05@1.07. There is little or no movement in Barley, and in the absence of sales, we omit quotations.

WOOL—There is little or nothing doing in this important staple at present, nor is it likely that there will be for some time to come, as the season is backward for clipping, and, besides, the supply of old in first hands is about exhausted, and the new is not yet ready for market. ALLEGHENY LIVE STOCK MARKET.

ALLEGHENY STOCK YARDS, MONDAY, April 27, 1874.

CATTLE.

As will be seen, there were 47 cars on sale today, of which 40 cars were from Chicago, while last Monday, there were some 52 or 53 cars, showing an increase of some half dozen cars. The market in a general way presented but little that was new or important. As usual, nearly every dealer made a different report, but on one point they pretty generally agreed, and that is that trade was slow, although we do not think there were 25 head remaining unsold by 12 o'clock. In point of quality, there was not much difference, while prices were fully sustained; in not a few instances, better rates were realized than those of last Monday. It was claimed by those who had Chicago Cattle, that their stock cost a shade more than that of last week, and we think the advance in price to-day was just about sufficient to cover the increased cost in question—some dealers while claiming the former denied the latter: in other words, that while they had to pay more for their cattle they were unable to realize any better rates for them. However while this may have been true in some instances, we are satisfied it was not general, as the supply was only an average one, and our Allegheny drovers are not in the habit of doing that kind of business when they can help it, while there is no doubt but what trade is unsatisfactory, not only here but elsewhere, we have not much doubt but what all the cattle on sale today made a commission, and some of them doubtless did considerably better. There were cattle sold today at 7½, which is a quarter above anything reported last Monday, and L Keifer retailed one carload of extra 1,510 steers at an average of 7½; they cost 6⅛ in Chicago. 50c ₱ cwt will cover freight and shrinkage, which will leave a margin of 25c for the seller. W Reis wholesaled 1 car of good 1,275 steers at 6.50. Quotations may be given as follows: Extra to fancy butcher steers, 7⅛@7⅛; good to prime, 6⅛@7 Bulls brought from 4 to 6 cents, according to quality. The stock on sale to day was owned as follows.

FRESH COWS.

The supply was very meagre today, owing mainly to the almost impassable condition of the country roads; the market remains substantially as last noted. There is no trouble in disposing of good milkers at full rates, as the offerings were very small, but common and scalawag cows are dull, and to effect sales have to be sold at very low prices. Extra to fancy, $65@75; good to prime, $40@55; fair, $30@35; inferior to common, $20@30.

SHEEP.

The number on sale footed up about 850 head, against full 800 last Monday; notwithstanding the very light supply dealers reported trade as having been slow and prices unsatisfactory: the great trouble was that the most of the offerings were common in point of quality, while the demand was mainly for the best. Common to extra clipped quotable at 5@6½; fair to extra wooled, 7⅛@8⅛. R McCaslin sold 50 extra to fancy Cotswold and Leicester sheep and yearling lambs—the former averaging 100 and the latter 120 lbs—to Ackley and Harrison, two of our best butchers, at 10c. Adam Eckert sold 35 scalawag [clipped] at 4⅛. Gus Farien 37 wooled, 90 lbs, at 8. M Humes 60 wooled at 6⅛@7⅛. Isaac Ackerman 97 clipped at 4⅛@5⅛.

HOGS.

Were in fair supply, and, if anything, a little slow today, and prices, as compared with this day week, were a shade lower—sales were made in a retail way, at 5⅛@5⅛, gross, as to quality and condition. There were two or three small lots in the hands of outsiders. As it becomes warmer the retail demand will gradually fall off, and butchers generally will soon commence to buy more sheep and fewer hogs.

VEAL CALVES.

The market remains substantially as last noted: the receipts are increasing, as is usually the case at this particular time, but good calves are selling readily at full rates. Sales were reported at from $4 ₱ head up to 6⅛ cents per pound.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 27, 1874.

The Crude market continues firm and prices as compared with Saturday are higher: 5@5¼ cents ₱ gallon, in bulk barges here and $1.95@2.05 ₱ brl at Parker. Five cents ₱ gallon is only $2.10 ₱ bri here, whereas, delivered by rail, it would cost $2.25@2.30. In regard to the shutting down movement, there is nothing particularly new to record; those who have gone into it are reported as being confident of success, and it must be admitted that but for this movement prevailing rates could not have been realized. Refined, on the other hand, does not seem to sympathize with the raw material, as it is worth but little more now than before the "shutting down" was commenced; April or early May, 13 cents on cars here and 15⅛ delivered in Philadelphia.

The Barrel market continues quiet and unchanged; countries, $1 65; city make, $1.70.

The river is again receding at this point, with fifteen and a half feet in the channel last evening. Weather clear and pleasant, and business at the landing was quite active; freights, particularly for St. Louis, were offering pretty freely, but prices are very low, twelve and a half cents per cwt.

The Esperanza from St. Louis, and Carrie Brooks from Zanesville, arrived both with good trips. The Esperanza will at once commence loading for a return trip to St. Louis.

The Belle of Shreveport departed for St. Louis with a good freight list and engagements below. Pilots, Marsh Hays and William Williamson.

The Juniata, Captain C L Brennan, will positively take her departure for Cincinnati this evening, and those interested should make a note of this and act accordingly.

The Mollie Ebert from St. Louis, is among the first boats due. She left Cincinnati with a good freight list.

The Wild Duck will positively depart to morrow for St. Louis, at least Captain Adams says so and he ought to know.

Nick Whitten and Wm Gosney were the pilots on the Esperanza from Cincinnati. At Wheeling Mr. Whitten received intelligence of the death of his mother.

The Mallie Ragon returned to Wheeling as usual. The Belle of Shreveport will receive 7,000 kegs of nails at Wheeling.

—Yesterday's Cincinnati "Commercial" says: —The J. S. Stone, from Pittsburgh, arrived with a tow of coal.—Mary Davage, Captain James Bachelor, from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, with 300 tons of iron ore and 3 empty barges, passed up yesterday at 9 A. M.—The Thos. W. Means, from Pittsburgh, arrived with a full tow, and departed for St Louis. D. W. and Moses Kirkpatrick are the pilots, with James M. Kirker in command.—The Dexter, with 100,000, and the My-Choice, with 125,000 bushels of coal, arrived from Pittsburgh Saturday night. The My-Choice made the run from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati, with her tow of 125,000 bushels of coal in fifty-four hours. The Dodsworth's fast time recently was sixty hours.

—Yesterday's Cincinnati "Gazette" says:—The J. S. Mercer passed up yesterday for Pittsburgh with empty barges.—It is reported that the Paragon will go to St. Louis from New Orleans after a load of iron for Pittsburgh.—The James Gilmore, with a barge of cedar posts and a barge of iron ore, will pass up to day for Pittsburgh.

The Henry Ames Sold at St. Louis.

The steamer Henry Ames was sold at Marshal's sale in St. Louis, on Saturday. The "Democrat" says the sale was opened up at 12 o'clock, sharp, to a large attendance of steamboatmen, amongst whom were the following bidders: Capt. John A. Scudder started at $5,000, and then advanced by several others bidding, until $14,000 was offered by Capt. W. J. Rush of Cincinnati, followed by a $15,000 bid from George Lee of steamer Pauline Carroll. She was finally captured by Mr. N Springer for the sum of $15,100. It is understood that Mr. Springer bought the steamer for himself and the firm of Boylan & Gettys. The Henry Ames was built at St. Louis and completed March, 1864. After being rebuilt in 1870, the following were her dimensions: length on deck 300 feet, breadth 43½ feet, depth 8 feet, capacity 1,700 tons. She has 4 boilers, 2 cylinders, each 7 feet stroke, 28½ inches diameter. In December, 1870, she was valued at $72,000, in February, 1872, $55,000, February, 1873, $48,000. She came off the docks last October, and was then valued by the underwriters at $48,000.

A Victim of Intemperance.

Coroner McCallin yesterday held an inquest on the body of Peter Hickman, who was found dead in bed at his house on Josephine street, Twenty-fifth ward, South Side. Deceased had been addicted to the "bowl" for the past two and a half years, and that caused his death. A verdict of death from intemperance was rendered. Deceased was a German, sixty-five years of age, and leaves a wife and two grown-up children.

Allegheny School Teachers.

The Committee on Teachers and Salaries of the Allegheny Board of School Controllers last evening held a meeting and took up the resolution referred to them at the last meeting of the Board, reducing the number of Principals in the public schools to six. After some discussion it was decided to report adverse to the adoption of the resolution. They also decided to report a resolution authorizing that hereafter the election of all teachers be reported to this committee before the election is confirmed by the Board. After the transaction of some further routine business the committee adjourned.

Young Men's Allegheny County Bible Society.

Last evening the Board of Managers of the Young Men's Bible Society of Allegheny county, held their annual meeting in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association, when the reports of the Treasurer, Librarian, Secretary, Managers and Agent were presented. During the year 7,920 families were visited, and 2,310 Bibles were given away or sold. The railroad cars, jail, station houses, penitentiary, Dixmont, steamboats, Allegheny Poor House and the Reform School each received a portion of these. One hundred and one Bibles, printed in Chinese, were distributed to the Chinese laborers at Beaver Falls, and seem to be much appreciated by them.

Escaped and Recaptured.

On Sunday morning about one o'clock Officer Leonard Brucker, of Allegheny, arrested a man named John Bailey while fighting with two other men at Woods' Run. As he was conveying him to the station house Bailey, suddenly became very weak in the knees, and informed the officer that he had been stabbed and was bleeding to death and asked that he be allowed to sit down for a few minutes. The Officer thought that perhaps the man had been hurt and allowed him to sit down, and he began to make a search for his wounds, when Bailey pretended to become still weaker, as though he were about to faint, when suddenly, he jumped up and started to run. He was recaptured after a short chase, and last evening had the pleasure of paying $5 and costs to Mayor Neillie. He had not been injured in the fight at all.

Collisions.

An old man passing along Stockton avenue, west of Federal street, on Saturday night, watching only his steps, collided with a yard gate at house No. 21 and besides falling prone to the pavement, received an ugly scrath on the face. The gate was open and projected at right angles into the street, left so we suppose by careless children or servants.

A similar collision to the above was experienced by an elderly lady passing a house on Sandusky street, westside, above Ohio, where she collided with a projecting board, used to support scaffolding. This board projected from the building so near the pavement that the lady received a stunning blow, causing considerable pain. This same scaffolding was wrecked on Sunday by a runaway horse coming against it with such force that he fell to the ground and was thus secured, after demolishing the buggy to which he was attached. Such obstructions should not be tolerated, and that they are permitted, is a reproach to the police.

Fire in Shousetown—Several Buildings Burned.

On Saturday night the Odd Fellows' building in Shousetown, on the Fort Wayne Railroad, was destroyed by fire, as well as the store and residence of William Johnston. Incendiaries had done the work. They had started the fire in an unoccupied portion of the building. From here it spread to the dwelling portion of Messrs. Bailey and Gray, in the Odd Fellows' Hall, the former of whom was nearly smothered to death, and the latter only saved a portion of his effects. The incendiaries had cut the rope at the well in the rear of the building, so that no water could be had, and consequently the destruction was complete. The Odd Fellows' building was an old one, being built in 1828, and was owned by Mr. Burns, and was valued at $1,500, which is partially covered by insurance. Johnson's loss is $1,000, which is fully covered by insurance. Bailey and Gray lose several hundred dollars, and were uninsured. The loss will fall heavily upon them, as they are laboring men.

A DANGEROUS EQUINE.

A Horse Attacks a Boy and Severely Injures Him.

Last evening shortly after six o'clock, a son of Mr. J. D. Thompson, who resides on Washington street, near Cedar avenue, Allegheny, entered the stable in the rear of the house for the purpose of feeding the horse, and while in the act, the horse became very much enraged, and knocked him down with its fore feet and began tramping upon his head and shoulders. Mr. Thompson hearing the boy's cries, ran in to his assistance, when the horse kicked at him, striking his left hand, fracturing several bones and dislocating several of the fingers. He, however, succeeded in dragging the boy from his dangerous position, and with the aid of Officer McElroy, conveyed him into the house. Medical aid was at once summoned, when it was found that the boy's skull was not fractured, but he had sustained severe wounds about the head, which are not supposed to be of a serious nature.

INJUNCTION WANTED.

Difficulty in the Improvement of Sylvan Avenue.

Petitions for an injunction against K. Bracken, the contractor for the grading and opening of the extension of Sylvan avenue, were filed yesterday in the Prothonotary's office by Joseph Grant, James Brady and Martin Flatly. The petitioners are the owners of lots in the Twenty-third ward. They allege that the contractor in improving the avenue has made such a poor disposition of the dirt taken out of the excavations that it has slid over into their lots, damaging them very much, and filling the road, known as the Squirrel Hill Road, which runs in the rear of their property, so that no one can pass along it. In addition to the above they allege that the water courses have been turned by the excavations, and that the water now washes the dirt down into their premises. They ask for an injunction restraining the contractor from trespassing further on their premises and compelling him to remove the dirt. The matter will come up for argument in Court to-morrow.

PRANKS OF A STEER.

He Creates a Panic in Allegheny.

About ten o'clock yesterday morning as a drove of cattle was passing along North avenue, Allegheny, one of the steers became separated from the drove, and was left behind. Soon after some boys came across it and began to annoy it until he became very cross. It ran up to the corner of Benton alley and Veto street, where it knocked two men down, bruising them somewhat. It then went up to the corner of Federal and Hemlock streets, and attacked a Mrs. Stewart, but she made her escape by running into a house near by. At the corner of Sandusky street and North avenue, it knocked down and ran over a little daughter of Mr. Emanuel Wertheimer, bruising it so badly that it had to be carried home, and Dr. James Herron summoned. The brute then wound up by attacking a little boy on Esplanade street, and inflicting a slight wound on his forehead with one of his horns, after which it was found by the owner, and driven off.

PAPERS TESTAMENTARY.

Wills of the Late Father Fitzgerald and Ludwig Mansz—Their Bequests.

The following wills were filed yesterday in the office of Register Gray: Ludwig Mansz, late of the Twenty-sixth ward of this city, bequeathed to his wife Catharine the dwelling house in which he lived, and all the household furniture, during her life, together with such sums from rent as she may need to supply the wants of the family. The balance of the estate, it is directed, shall be divided share and share alike among the children. The expenses incurred in raising the children shall be charged proportionately to each of them, and deducted from their shares when their legacies are paid to them. The property is not to be sold until the youngest child shall have reached the age of twenty-one years. George Alderson and Robert Conway are appointed executors.

The will of the late Rev. Thomas Fitzgerald, who died a few days ago, was also admitted to probate. To his father and mother, John and Johanna Fitzgerald, he gives his watch, books and all his personal effects, together with the proceeds of a policy on his life for $1,000, in the Travelers' Insurance Company, subject, however, to the payment of certain other legacies. To Rev. Stephen Wall, of St. Michael's Seminary, is bequeathed $100; to Rev. John Martin $25, and to Ellen, sister of the testator, $50. These sums are to be taken out of the insurance policy. The father of the deceased is appointed sole executor.

The Anderson Sash Balance is being introduced in the leading business houses of the country, including government buildings.

PITTSBURGH COUNCILS.

Regular Meeting Yesterday.

Explanatory—The Distribution of the "Nation" Funds—The South Side Water Supply—After the East End Gas Company—Something Concerning Policemen's Fines—Another Committee of Investigation—Election of Fire Commissioners—General Routine Business.

Pittsburgh Councils held a regular meeting Monday afternoon, April 27, 1874.

SELECT COUNCIL.

GEO. B. CHALMERS.......President pro tem.
E. S. MORROW..........Clerk.

This branch was called to order at fifteen minutes past two o'clock, when, in the absence of President Gross, on motion of Mr. R. B. Brown, Mr. G. B. Chalmers was called to the chair.

Present: Messrs. Adams, Abl, Ahlborn, Aiken, Anderson, Atkinson, Atterbury, Braun, Breed, R. B. Brown, Burgwin, Chalmers, Chislett, Clark, Darlington, Dannels, Dietrich, Dorrington, Eitemiller, Elder, Fetterman, Foster, Fox, Froelich, Galvin, Goldthorpe, Haines, Harrison, Hays, Herron, Holliday, Howard, House, Hunter, Jeremy, Jones, Keebler, Kestner, Laufman, Liddell, Lloyd, Littell, Macfarlane, Marshall, Mitchell, Meyer, Murray, McCandless, McCarthy, McClurg, McKee, Negley, O'Neil, Rafferty, Rayburn, Scheck, Scully, Watson and Zern.

The minutes of the preceding regular and two special meetings were read and approved.

A PERSONAL EXPLANATION.

Mr. McCarthy rose to a personal explanation regarding what he said at the last meeting of Councils. He first referred to the discussion on the pipe contracts, which occurred then and apologized for unparliamentary language used by him on that occasion. He then called attention to a statement which had appeared in the city press, and was signed by Mr. W. H. Kennedy, Civil Engineer of the new Water Works. The statement of Mr. Kennedy set forth that the authority which he (Kennedy) had for changing the sizes of the pipes was found in page 3 of the contract, in the clause, "These quantities are considered approximate, and the Board therefore expressly reserves the right of increasing or diminishing the same as in their opinion may be necessary, not exceeding twenty per cent." The speaker said he had since looked over the contract and could neither find page 3 nor the words which were quoted. They were not in the contract at all, but did appear in the advertisement for proposals, which was no part of the contract in any sense. There was a clause in the contract, however, which held the Engineer to a position just the opposite. That clause was found on page 24 of the official contract which contained the words "It is hereby understood that with the exception of such instructions and corrections as the Engineer, under the provisions of this is entitled to make the terms and conditions of this contract, or any one of them cannot be dispensed with, or rendered in any sense null and void without the written consent of the said party of the first part, attached to or indorsed on this agreement, specifying what modifications may have been agreed upon."

The speaker argued that this was the authority under which the Engineer should have acted, and hence the statement made by him (Mr. McCarthy) at the last meeting was strictly correct—that there were hundreds of tons of pipe of different sizes than were specified in the contract.

Mr. Jones, by permission, was allowed to say a word, and asked Councils to forbear forming any opinion on the matter until the other side had a chance to reply to the gentleman's set speech. The reply would be forthcoming in due time, and would have been ready to-day, if they had known the gentleman was going to make an extended speech.

Mr. McCarthy said he had told the gentleman from the Eighteenth ward the day after the last meeting of Councils, of these facts, and he could have been prepared to answer them if he had desired.

The Chair said discussion was out of order, and business must proceed according to the rules.

VACANCIES IN THE FIRE COMMISSION.

Bailey, Esq., Receiver of said Company, shall first pay in full the depositors of said Trust Company, other than the county of Allegheny, and the depositors who are stockholders, out of moneys coming into his possession as said Receiver, and that James Veech, Esq., Trustee in certain bonds and mortgages executed to him for the benefit of the creditors of said Trust Company, shall first pay in full the said depositors out of the instalments of said bonds and mortgages falling due December 15, 1874, provided that this agreement shall only apply to those depositors who have signed or may sign the agreement of extension entered into between said Trust Co. and the city of Pittsburgh and other creditors of the company; that all the stockholders who have signed said agreement shall consent in writing to the execution of this agreement, and that the city's proportion of the amount of the said first instalments so waived, shall be divided and payable with the four succeeding payments respectively, so that the whole of the city's claim shall be paid within the time originally agreed upon, and that the indebtedness, after deducting the assets of said Trust Co., does not exceed the sum of $800,000, and that the City Attorney be first satisfied that the mortgages of the stockholders are good, as agreed upon, the titles clear, and that they are good for the amount for which they were given.

JOINT SESSION.

The Joint Session was called to order by President Negley of the Common Branch, who read the communication from the Board of Fire Commission, which was accepted.

On motion nominations were declared in order.

The following gentlemen were named: Messrs. Wilson, McElroy, Kelly, Torley, Pender and Ballantine, when the nominations closed.

Mr. Braun raised the point of order that Mr. Ballantine was a member of Councils—or rather that he had been elected to take his seat next January and was not therefore eligible.

The Chair said that the ordinance prevented any member of Councils from holding a seat in the Fire Commission, but that Mr. Ballantine was not yet a member of Councils, and was, therefore, eligible, although if elected a Commissioner, he could not be sworn in as a member of Councils next January, provided he held his position as a member of the Commission.

The vote was then taken, the roll being called, and the members signifying their preference as their names were called. The request was as follows:

Wilson	*73	Pender	47
Torley	*71	Ballantine	45
McElroy	*61

The chair announced that it required 57 votes to elect, and that accordingly Messrs. Wilson, Torley and McElroy had been elected.

The joint session then adjourned.

PIMPLES, ERUPTIONS, ROUGH SKIN.

The system being put under the influence of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a few weeks, the skin becomes smooth, clear, soft and velvety, and being illuminated with the glow of perfect health from within, true beauty stands forth in all its glory. Nothing ever presented to the public as a beautifier of the complexion ever gave such satisfaction for this purpose as this Discovery. The effects of all medicines which operate upon the system through the medium of the blood are necessarily somewhat slow, no matter how good the remedy employed. While one to three bottles clear the skin of pimples, blotches, eruptions, yellow spots, comedones, or "grubs," a dozen may possibly be required to cure some cases where the system is rotten with scrofulous or virulent blood poisons. The cure of all these diseases, however, from the common pimple to the worst scrofula, is, with the use of this most potent agent, only a matter of time. Sold by all Druggists.

COVERED WITH ERUPTIONS. CURED.
CLAVERACK, Columbia Co., N. Y.
Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
Dear Sir—I am sixty years of age, and have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in the worst form for a great many years, until, accidently, saw one of your books, which described my case exactly. I bought your Golden Medical Discovery and took two bottles and a half, and was entirely cured. From my shoulders to my hands I was entirely covered with eruptions, also face and body. I was likewise afflicted with Rheumatism, so that I walked with great difficulty, and that is entirely cured. May God spare you a long life to remain a blessing to mankind, With untold gratitude,
MRS. A. W. WILLIAMS.

The petitioner alleges that the Commissioners have constituted themselves a Board of Revision and increased the valuation on his property as follows, to-wit: Seventy-five acres of land, $22,500; one two-story frame house and barn, $750; one one-story frame house and barn, $875, and your petitioner is informed by his counsel, and he believed it to be correct and true, that such increase is migatory and void by reason of the fact that the members of said Board of Revision have not taken and subscribed the oath or affirmation and deposited the same as required by law.

The petition also alleges that the valuation is excessively high and avers his readiness to take $12,000 in cash or $13,000 on time for all said lands and tenements. The paper was ordered to be filed and notice to be given to the Commissioners.

"As Hard as a Rock,"

Is a trite saying, by which we express not only solidity, but durability and power of resistance. Such is the nature of "Artificial Stone," just now coming so strongly into public notice. In a quiet way it has been tested for three or four years, and pavements made of it and unceasingly used for that time, show no impress of wear whatsoever beyond such as the natural rock would show in the way of scratches. So, too, with cellar and malt-house floors, hearths, fountains, &c. All particulars as to cost—it is very cheap—and other matters given at the office, which is at the hardware store of Mr. Herman Straub, No. 71 Federal street, Allegheny.

DO NOT PERSECUTE THE BODY

In sickness with medicines that depress the physical energies. What the sick principally need is an accession of vital strength to enable them to cope with the enemy that has assailed them. The diseased system should be sustained, toned, purified and regulated, and there is no medical preparation in existence so largely endowed with the properties required to effect these objects as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. In ordinary practice, aperient, blood-depurating, anti-bilious and sedative medicines are administered separately. In Hostetter's Bitters all these agents are combined, so that undue debility and undue excitement are alike prevented and the strength of the patient rallies while the disease is losing ground. In dyspepsia, liver complaint, chronic constipation, intermittent fevers, general weakness and all ailments involving physical and mental depression, this pure vegetable restorative is a sovereign remedy.

AMUSEMENTS.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—A very large audience assembled at the Opera House last evening, attracted by the production of the new and successful society play entitled "Led Astray." The drama is full of interest, and was presented with the best effect. Seldom is a play placed upon the stage that has so many fine characters. Mrs. Bowers and Mr. McCollom, with Mr. Gotthold, Mr. Price, Mr. Irving and other members of his company, all have parts to perform that give them the best opportunity of success in their several lines, and each and every one acquit themselves in a creditable manner. The very fine mounting of the piece is especially noted by all who have seen it, and the management is justly complimented on the good taste and enterprise shown in arranging the rich appointments. The acting of Mrs. Bowers, we need scarcely remark, is very fine throughout. Mr. McCollom is easy and natural in his delineation, and acts the role of the husband with all the force and delicacy necessary to meet the conception of the dramatist as to what he should be. Mr. Gotthold could not have acted his part better if the character had been especially dramatized for him. "Led Astray" will be repeated this evening with the same cast of characters, and those who desire seats should secure them during the day at the ticket office.

LIBRARY HALL.—Kelly & Leon's Minstrels.—This evening, this organization, one of peculiar merit and artistic prominence, will commence a two nights' engagement at Library Hall. As a minstrel troupe, it is unrivalled, and aims at something higher than mere minstrelsy. Mr. Leon is the finest female impersonator on the minstrel stage, and that gentleman, with his beautiful falsetto voice, enacts the prima donna parts in Offenbach's chef d'œuvres. As a comic opera singer Mr. Leon has few equals, and the troupe produce these specialties with a keen regard to detail. Mr. Kelly is also a beautiful tenor singer, and we believe that the company will be equal to any that have appeared here, and ought to be greeted with a crowded house this evening.

FOREPAUGH'S GREAT SHOW.—Adam Forepaugh's really great double ring Circus, Menagerie and Museum gave two exhibitions at East Liberty yesterday afternoon and evening, which were witnessed by nearly everybody at the East End. This morning the vast aggregation will parade some of the principal streets of the city, presenting the finest and most extensive show parade ever seen in Pittsburgh. The Oriental triumphal car will be drawn by twenty Arabian horses, followed by camels, elephants, living giraffe, baby lions, monster unicorn, an open den of lions and tigers, in which Herr Darious will perform as the procession moves, and other objects of interest too numerous to enumerate. After moving over the route, the entire show will proceed to the corner of Penn avenue and Thirty-first street, where exhibitions will be given in the afternoon and also in the evening—open at 1 and 6½ o'clock for viewing the menagerie and museum, and circus performance commencing an hour and a half later—all for one price of admission. The menagerie is the largest in the country, embracing hundreds of choice specimens of rare species of beasts and birds. In the museum will be found a vast collection of curious and interesting articles, many of them hundreds of years old; automata of all kinds, which will please the little people and the big. The circus will be found to equal, if not surpass, anything of the kind ever seen here. Wednesday the show will exhibit in Birmingham, and the balance of the week in Allegheny.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The Royal Marionettes still continue the attraction here. This is positively the last week of their engagement and it ought to prove immensely popular. The entertainment is so unique and original, that even the most sedate grown person can not help but laugh at their antics. If you want to enjoy yourself and also give the children a chance to do the same, go and see the Marionettes, they will please you.

MARTIN'S NEW VARIETIES.—This resort has become at once popular. Last evening, the commencement of the third week of its existence, a large audience was present to witness the choice programme prepared by the management. The company engaged for this week is a very strong one, and the bills contain many novelties. A pleasant evening can be spent here by lovers of a variety performance.

CITY HALL.—The fair for the benefit of the orphans continues in its full tide of success at City Hall, and the promenades every evening still forming a great feature.

Strassberger & Joseph, 161 Federal street, are perfect patterns of freshness, fashion, neatness and excellence, having as much care bestowed on their make-up as if they were custom work, and the material as fashionable, seasonable and durable as if ordered to measure. Their stock of cloths, cassimeres and vestings is one of the largest and finest in the city, being selected with extreme care as to style, texture, quality and color. In the line of furnishing goods can be found all the latest novelties, as well as a fine selection of standard goods. House Cleaning and Carpeting.

The wet and dismal days of April are about at an end, when house cleaning will begin in earnest, and then will follow the changing of carpets with something new and desirable. We must commend the Carpet Emporium of Messrs. Welty Bros., 166 Federal street, Allegheny City, as having an excellent assortment of Brussels, Ingrains, Hall and Stair Carpets, of all kinds and qualities, which they offer at special bargains. How they manage to sell so cheap is a mystery to many, yet it is explained by saying that the Welty Bros., are satisfied with fair, living, and moderate profits, giving their patrons the benefit of 25 per cent. as an inducement to make the sales quick and the sixpence nimble.

SALES. BY A. LEGGATE & CO. LOT 56X200. LOT 50X200. Ridge Avenue, ALLEGHENY, AT AUCTION. On MONDAY EVENING, May 4, at 8 o'clock, will be sold at A. LEGGATE & CO.'S office, 171 Federal street, two of the most desirable lots in Allegheny city, for the erection of first-class residences. They are situate on the South Side of Ridge avenue, adjacent to Mr. English's residence, between Grant avenue and the Park, and are surrounded on all sides by the most costly residences in the city. Ridge avenue is destined to be the most select and fashionable street in the city, and it is hard to say when another opportunity will be presented to secure a foothold thereon. Only one or two lots besides those now offered remain unsold, so that now is emphatically the time to buy. Intending buyers will please notice that the appearance of the avenue will be much improved when the present vacant lots are graded and built up. That portion of Seminary Hill in rear of the present lots is being removed, which will add very much to their appearance and consequent value. The corner lot is 56 feet and the inside lot is 50 feet wide. Both run 200 feet deep to a 40 foot street. They are grand lots, and should excite more than common interest. Remember that at least 50 feet will be sold unreservedly. Chances like this are like angels' visits—few and far between. Full particulars by mail, or in person by A. LEGGATE & CO., AUCTIONEERS, 171 Federal street, Allegheny. ap28:h18
